

1950

- 16 Sept. Eighth U.S. Army begins its offensive northward out of Pusan Perimeter.
- 20-22 Sept. 1st Marine Division drives northeast across Han River and captures Yongdungpo.
- 26 Sept X Corps' 31st Infantry Regiment, 7th Infantry Division, moving east from Inchon, links up with Eighth Army's 7th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division, south of Suwon.
- 27 Sept. U.S. and ROK forces capture Seoul, the South Korean capital.
- 9 October U.S. Eighth Army forces cross the 38th Parallel north of Kaesong and attack northward toward Pyongyang, the North Korean capital.
- 10 Oct. ROK 1 Corps captures the major port of Wonsan.
- 14-17 Oct. 7th Infantry Division loads on ships at Pusan in preparation for amphibious landings by X Corps along the northeastern coast above the 38th Parallel.
- 19 Oct. 1st ROK Division and U.S. 1st Cavalry Division capture Pyongyang.
- 26 Oct. 1st Marine Division, lands at Wonsan. ROK forces reach the Yalu River at Chosan.
- 29 Oct. 7th Division lands at Iwon.
- 1 Nov. 21st Infantry Regiment, 24th Infantry Division, captures the village of Chonggodo, 18 miles from Sinuiju and the Yalu River, which separates North Korea from China.
- 1-2 Nov Battle of Unsan. First U.S. battle with Chinese Communist Forces involving the 8th Cavalry Regiment, 1st Cavalry Division.

PHASE TWO

16 September - 2 November 1950

United Nations (UN) Offensive

Korean Memorial Park
244 S 3rd St, Philadelphia, PA 19106